

Susan Inglett Gallery is pleased to present D.I.Y. with Jessica Diamond, Sol LeWitt and Lawrence Weiner, an exhibition celebrating the release of the remaining sets of I.C. Edition's conceptual 1993 project, DO-IT-YOURSELF. From 9 December 2021 through 29 January 2022, a display of the boxed edition will be accompanied by an installation of unique wall works from each of the original participating artists. The LeWitt Estate has proposed the installation of Sol LeWitt's Wall Drawing #869, Copied Lines., a copied line drawing with a not-straight black line at the midpoint of the height with successive red, yellow and blue lines repeated until the last full line at the bottom of the wall. In the spirit of D.I.Y. and conceptual art, this is a project that invites all comers to assist in its completion. For anyone who has ever said they can't draw a straight line, now is your moment to shine!

Our "DO-IT-YOURSELF" kit contains all necessary materials, diagrams and instructions for creating your own artwork by JESSICA DIAMOND, SOL LEWITT, and LAWRENCE WEINER. For the run of the exhibition, the Gallery will offer signed limited edition kits starting at $2,500.00 and a limited number of unlimited edition kits starting at $600. (Complimentary custom gift-wrapping included with purchase through the holiday.)

With good humor, "DO-IT-YOURSELF" 1993 captures the essence of conceptual art. Each artist has contributed an idea for an artwork, or "the most important aspect of the work," according to Sol LeWitt. The execution is then left for you to "do-it-yourself". By selecting conceptual artists from three successive generations, the project emphasizes the diversity and staying power of the conceptual movement.

The elements of "DO-IT-YOURSELF" are housed in a black cloth-covered box, 12" by 10 1/2" by 1". Jessica Diamond contributes the overhead transparency used to trace her 110" wall work, "Money Dances". Sol LeWitt contributes paper and personalized pencil for the rendering of one LeWitt drawing. Lawrence Weiner delivers his message with a bright yellow stencil MOI + TOI & NOUS. The label, diagrams, and instruction sheets are printed letterpress on Folio paper by Anne Noonan of Soho Letterpress, NYC. Design by Dan Miller Design, NYC. Published by I.C. Editions, a division of Susan Inglett Gallery.
