6. "Dwelling Is the Light" at Timothy Taylor

Curator and art historian Katy Hessel, who runs the Instagram account @thegreatwomenartists, has curated this exhibition—the first in a series of online shows—for Timothy Taylor. Drawing its name from William Wordsworth's 1798 poem "Tintern Abbey," it features works by women artists including Hope Gangloff, Hilary Pecis, and Kiki Smith, with both interior and exterior scenes, landscapes and domestic settings.
