From a splashy, limited-edition Depeche Mode retrospective to a serene collection of quiet Japanese crafts; contemporary Black art to nature photography that will remind anyone who needed reminding just how much we stand to lose: There's a visual book here for everyone.

Black Art Today

In YOUNG, GIFTED AND BLACK: A New Generation of Artists (D.A.P., $49.95), the art critic Antwaun Sargent highlights hundreds of works by Black artists working predominantly in America today, from Kerry James Marshall and Tunji Adeniyi-Jones to Chiffon Thomas, Eric N. Mack and Wilmer Wilson IV.
